

and

Invite you to a live-streaming virtual panel:

Showcasing the Work of Emerging Nurse Philosophers

FRIDAY MAY 23, 2025

1:30-3:30pm Pacific, 4:30-6:30pm Eastern, 10:30pm CET,
6:30-8:30am May 24th Wollongong (Australia)

Speaker panel featuring:

- Jacinta Mackay / Wiradjuri / RN BA MN PhD candidate, University of Wollongong & University of Sydney, Sydney, Australia: A Decolonising Philosophy
- Melissa Crump RN MSN MSChQ PhD candidate, University of Victoria, Canada: Navigating Health Care Leadership: Using Critical Race Theory and Intersectionality to Understand the Black Leaders Experience
- Caitlin Healy MSN RN APRN PhD student, UMass, Worcester, USA: Bernard Lonergan and Nursing Practice Development
- Michelle Padley / Métis Nation British Columbia / BScN RN MN & Victoria Dick / ?uklaamah T'at'usayalthim. histaqšihah cíšaa?ath / BScN RN PhD students, University of Victoria, Canada: In the Space Between Stories: Walking Together in Relation
- Dr. Jim Johansson PhD RN MN assistant professor, University of Alberta: Abjection, vulnerability and fascination: What Kristeva and The Silence of the Lambs can teach nurses about boundaries.

Moderated by:

- Olga Petrovskaya PhD RN, associate professor, University of Victoria, Canada
- Darlaine Jantzen PhD RN, associate professor, Trinity Western University, Canada

RSVP

RSVP/registration is required. Attendance is free. For more information, please contact Pam Grace pamela.grace.2@bc.edu or Olga Petrovskaya olgap@uvic.ca

Interested in a PhD studies in Nursing? Check U of Victoria, Canada, online PhD in Nursing program here. Info session May 5, 2025, 5-6pm (Pacific time) via zoom.